7. (Unclassified - LLM) Met with first-term Congressman Jerome Waldie (D., Calif.) to point out our availability should he ever deem it desirable or necessary to call on us for assistance or to pursue matters for his constituents. Unfortunately, due to the meeting of the California State delegation, Mr. Waldie will not be able to attend the 8 February breakfast briefing by the Agency, but he said he would like to attend such a briefing later on when his schedule permits. Mr. Waldie appeared to be sincere in his interest to know more about the Agency, and we discussed its functions and role briefly and he asked if I could leave written material on the Agency with him. Explaining its purpose, I gave him a copy of the Agency brochure.

8. (Unclassified - LLM) Met with first-term Congressman James V. Smith (R., Okla.) and his Administrative Assistant in a get-acquainted session. Mr. Smith is one of the two freshmen Republicans to be appointed to the Armed Services Committee. Smith accepted our invitation to attend the 8 February breakfast briefing and will use our transportation. Mr. Smith was quite interested in "what went wrong" with the Bay of Pigs. His Administrative Assistant asked questions concerning duplication among the intelligence agencies and the responsibility for "centralizing" intelligence. I limited my response as much as possible deferring to discussion of this further at the 8 February breakfast meeting. Mr. Smith wanted to know whether the 8 February briefing would duplicate Mr. Helms' briefing of the full House Armed Services Committee. I pointed out the ways in which they would differ. Mr. Smith observed that similar briefings of first-term members by agencies and departments are window dressing with little concern for the "real facts."

9. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Met briefly with several staff members of the Civil Service Commission Retirement Bureau in a review of our proposed cost-of-living annuity adjustment legislation. All seems to be going well and we should have a phone call on this some time Monday.

10. (Unclassified - JSW) The Director, accompanied by Messrs. Duckett and Warner, met with the Gore Disarmament Subcommittee of Senate Foreign Relations Committee, in executive session for about two hours. It was a very successful briefing session. See transcript and Memo for the Record for details.
